

BY THE NUMBERS

0.8%

The average rate change for California's individual market in 2020, which is the lowest premium increase since 2014.

New financial help means costs will go down for many.

Enrollees whose annual household income falls below 138 percent of the federal poverty level will see their premiums for the benchmark plan lowered to $1 per member, per month, thanks to new state subsidies approved by the governor and state Legislature.

The average amount that many consumers who currently qualify for federal financial assistance could be eligible to receive in new state subsidies to help further lower the cost of their coverage.

The average amount that middle-income Californians, who previously did not qualify for financial help because they exceeded federal income requirements, could be eligible to receive from the new state subsidy program.

9 OUT OF 10

Covered California enrollees received some level of financial assistance in 2019.

1.39M

Number of consumers enrolled through Covered California as of March 2019.

4M+

Number of consumers enrolled through Covered California at one time or another since 2014. Most move on to employer-sponsored coverage, Medi-Cal or the individual market when they leave.

11

Health insurance companies returning to the market for 2020. Three carriers will be expanding their offerings, giving nearly all Californians a choice of two carriers and 87 percent a choice of three carriers or more.